1. Books through Bars are collecting books and sending them to Correctional facilities and homes. They are asking for $500?

Discussion about current RPIRG finances shows the accounts to be less bountiful than hoped (25,000 less). Currently, the budget for working groups is set at $5000 so the funds are available.

Clarification on the funding process was provided. A letter will be forwarded to BTB containing the final terms of the agreement. The financial contact person will be the payee on the cheque.

Some discussion emerged around having a bank account as a requisite but the group decided to follow the LPIRG precedent. A member brought up the point that the agreement can be reviewed at any time if discrepancies are suspected.
