Motion 1 – Knox-Met speakers series

Rationale: for RPIRG to be able to support important social justice conversations being held off-campus, and improve our outreach.

Motion: That the RPIRG board partner with Knox-Met United Church on their new lecture series (working title Conversations that Matter) by providing promotional funding and assisting Knox-Met in securing speakers for the series.

Result: passed

Motion 2: Strategic planning session in late April/early May 2018

Rationale: for RPIRG to engage in a 5 year strategic planning session in order to better work towards more recent goals, with a particular focus on outreach and communications

Motion: that RPIRG approve $8400 for local organization Go Giraffe Go to run a strategic planning session in late April/early May

Result: passed

Motion 3: That RPIRG provide sponsorship for UR Pride speaker Tasheka Lavann during equity week

Rationale: for RPIRG to support UR Pride's goal to bring in speaker Tasheka Lavann, a queer Black Caribbean activist, during Equity Week 2018.

Motion: that RPIRG provide $500 in funding to UR Pride for their event Working Woke in the fight for equity: a meaningful conversation with Tasheka Lavann

Result: passed
